ADC*E Awards '19

Welcome to the 28th edition of the ADCE Best of European Design and Advertising Awards.

The ADCE Awards is the only award scheme in the world to bring together the best of European award-winning work under one competition. Participation to the ADCE Awards is exclusively granted to works that have been recognized at a national level offering them international visibility and promotion.

Eligibility

ADCE Members

Winners of ADCE affiliated national clubs responsible for their respective country's premier award competition are eligible to participate under the following advantageous conditions:

- Free entry for Gold Award winners from the national competitions.
- Reduced entry fee for locally awarded Silver, Bronze and Shortlist (for fees, see page 13).

Note:

1. All submitted entries will be verified for eligibility with local competition organizers.
2. Because some national member clubs now include international sections in their award's schemes, please note that: work cannot be submitted when it has not been produced in the country where it has been awarded.

Registration process

1 Registration must be done online at:
<http://adce.submit.to>

Each entry form will be assigned an Entry ID number (automatically generated by the system). You can fill in the online entry form and make any changes you consider necessary up to the final registration deadline on 26 September 2019.

After that day, no modifications will be allowed.

Works can only be entered once for each award received locally. The work must be entered in the category where it was locally awarded when possible. In cases where the ADCE categories do not match the local categories, the work should be entered in the closest fit possible.

2 All necessary images, videos, or sound files for the works submitted must be uploaded to the on-line entry platform.

Depending on the category (see Formats, pages 9-12), entries may only be required to upload digital material to the online entry platform, while in some cases (i.e. Design) printed samples of works will also be required for Judging Day and must be sent to Barcelona by post. These must be labeled with the corresponding Entry ID number, and accompanied by a printed copy of the entry form (look for the PRINT icon on the on-line platform).

3 Works submitted for judging in more than one category must be individually entered in each category.

Note:

Entry forms and work descriptions must be clear and correctly spelled, as this information will be taken from the form and used for promotional purposes (annual, exhibition, etc.).

Formats and specs

All necessary images, videos, or sound files for the works submitted must be uploaded to the on-line entry platform.

Moreover, in some cases works must also be sent to the ADCE office in printed format (printed sample) for judging.

Technical requirements for each format:

Videos:

1920x1080 px (codec H.264)

Important: 1st frame must not be black!

- maximum video length is 2,5 min.
- maximum file size is 500Mb
- English voice over or subtitles

Sound Videos:

1920x1080 px (codec H.264)

Important: text caption in English

(Font Helvetica Bold 55, white on black, line space 60).

Images for Web & Print purposes:

- JPG 1920 x 1080 px 72 dpi (RGB).
Portrait or landscape.

and

- JPG A4 (297 x 210 mm) 300 dpi
(CMYK). Portrait or landscape.

3D and Printed Samples:

- 3D Real size samples
- 2D printed samples should be mounted on an A2 or A3 rigid board

Note:

Descriptions of each piece must be included in the online entry form. They will be used for judging and also for publication. Please ensure the descriptions are written in correct English and contain no spelling or typographical errors.
